Know all men by these presents, that I John Davenport, junior of Stamford in the State of Connecticut <sup>North American</sup> administrator on the estate of William Welles late of said Stamford deceased, do constitute, authorize and appoint _____ resident in London in the Kingdom of Great Britain my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name to ask, demand, sue for and recover all sum or sums of money and other dues, that may be owing and growing due to the estate aforesaid, and to use, pursue, and take all such legal means for recovery of the same, as my said Attorney shall judge necessary and expedient; and upon payment and receipt of the same, or any part thereof for me and in my name as administrator aforesaid to make, sign, seal and deliver all such releases, receipts or other discharges as shall be necessary or the case may require; and also in my name to do and transact, as fully and amply, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as I myself might or could do, were I personally present and transact the same in person, hereby ratifying and confirming all my said Attorney shall legally do or cause to be done in the premises by virtue of these presents; and I also authorize and empower my said Attorney to substitute and appoint one or more attorneys under him, and at his pleasure to revoke. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of

Be it known, That on the — day of — in the year one thousand eight hundred and six, I Josias Wilson King, Notary Public for the County aforesaid, residing in the City of Washington in the said county, duly appointed and sworn, at the request of — presented to * — therein named the original bill or note whereof the above is a true copy and demanded of the said — payment of the sum of money in the said bill or note specified, therunto he answered (here insert the answer).

Wherefore, I, the said Notary, at the request aforesaid, do hereby protest against the acceptor drawer and endorser of the bill or note aforesaid, and all persons liable for, or chargeable with, the sum of money in said bill or note specified, for as well the same sum of money, to wit, four thousand dollars as all legal interest, damages, costs and charges, which have accrued, or which may accrue, by reason of the non payment of the said sum of money according to the tenor of the said bill or note.

In Testimony whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my notarial seal of office, the day and year last above written.

Josias Wilson King, Notary Public.

The above is a form of Protest on either bill or note.

5) Bailey Bartlett New Hampshire Presented by W. Nicholson (of Maryland.)

To the honorable the Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled The Memorial of Josias Wilson King, late a clerk in the office of the clerk to the House, Respectfully Sheweth.

That at the first session of the Seventh Congress, immediately after the passage of the act "concerning the library for the use of both Houses of Congress," your memorialist was appointed assistant librarian to take arrange and take charge of the books of the said library; that the memorialist accordingly performed the said duty, and also executed the trust reposed in him as a clerk in the office of the clerk to the House at the same time.

That the present clerk of your honorable body, who was appointed librarian by the President of the United States, agreed to divide equally the compensation with your memorialist allowed by the said act, during the time he continued to serve in the library; but the memorialist has not hitherto received the said compensation, as he had a right to expect, although repeated applications have in vain been made therefor, from the year 1802, to the present time.

Your Memorialist begs leave to call the attention of the House to another claim to which, he conceives he is justly entitled; that is a reimbursement of interest on grants heretofore made by the House to the Memorialist for extra services rendered by him in the office, which, in consequence of their being withheld by the clerk, he was compelled to pay to the branch bank of the United States at the City of Washington, enable him to receive nearly the amount of the same; while it can be proved by incontestable evidence, that the present clerk to your honorable body allowed and paid interest on a certain demand on the same fund out of which your Memorialist, in his opinion, ought to have been punctually paid at the time the grants were made.

New-Ham

The Memorialist is likewise under the painful necessity of representing to the House, that after having constantly served as a Clerk in their office, from the Spring of the year 1797 to the 31st of December, 1805, he was, on that day, discharged by the present Clerk of the House, in the Winter Season, with a family to support, and no resources whatever to provide for them, - and (to heighten the cruelty and unfeeling inflexibility manifested in the proceeding) without any charge against him which could, in the smallest degree, impeach his diligence or fidelity in the execution of his public duty: He therefore prays, that you will be pleased to take the premises into consideration, and so far as may be consistent with equity and justice to afford that redress which has been denied to him by one of the officers of your House.

And the Memorialist as in duty bound &c.

Josias Wilson King

18th February, 1806. Referred to the Committee of Accounts.

[Report made the 5th March, 1806, and referred to a committee of the whole House, on Monday next.]

The Committee of accounts, to whom was referred the memorial of Josias Wilson King, submit the following Report:

That the only part of the memorial intitled to the consideration of the House, is a claim for interest on grants heretofore made to the memorialist, from the contingent fund, and withheld from him by the Clerk.

The House of Representatives, on the 27th day of March,

James A. Bayard Delaware.

1804, made a specific grant of additional compensation to their officers, amounting to $1700, payable out of the contingent fund of the House, in which was included a grant to the memorialist of 2 dollars. For want of funds in the hands of the clerk, these gratuities were not paid until the month of December, 1804; and that he had not funds for that object, appears by a balance due to him of $192-15, upon the settlement of his accounts with the Treasury, on the 19th day of October, in the same year; and by an appropriation made of $2500, early in the session of Congress for that year, to supply the deficiency of the last appropriation for the contingent fund.

Your committee therefore report, that the memorialist has no claim upon the clerk of the House of Representatives, as prayed for by him; and that his memorial ought not to be granted.

Mr Emmet — What have I to say, why sentence of death should not be pronounced on me according to law — I have nothing to say that can alter your predetermination, nor that will become me to say with any view to the mitigation of that sentence which you are here to pronounce, and I must abide by. But I have that to say which interests me more than life, and which you have laboured (as was necessarily your office in the present circumstances of this oppressed country) to destroy — I have much to say why my reputation should be rescued from the load of false accusation and calumny which has been heaped upon it. I do not imagine, that, seated, where you are your minds can be so free from impunity as to receive the least impression from what I am going to utter. I have no hopes that I can anchor my character in the breast of a Court constituted and trammelled as this is. I only wish and it is the utmost
